

Analytic Philosophy of Religion II

- Date: September 13, 2012, 09:00 – 12:30
- Venue: SOPhiA symposium, lecture hall HS104, University of Salzburg, Austria

he workshop is about topics of analytic philosophy of religion, particularly on meta-theoretical questions of philosophy of religion. There will be three talks and comments delivered by the following speakers and commentators:

- Adam Green (University of Innsbruck)
- Patrick Todd (University of Innsbruck)
- Paul Weingartner (University of Salzburg)

Schedule

- 09:00–10:00: Paul Weingartner
- 10:00–10:15: Short break
- 10:15–11:15: Adam Green
- 11:15–11:30: Short break
- 11:30–12:30: Patrick Todd

Information on the talks

Adam Green:

- Ritual Spaces and the Extended Mind
- Language: English
- Comment: Paul Weingartner

Patrick Todd:

- Why Your Modal Analysis Won't Work
- Language: English
- Comment: Adam Green

Paul Weingartner:

- Similarities and Differences between Scientific and Religious Belief
- Language: English
- Comment: Patrick Todd

This workshop is sponsored by means of the Analytic Theology Cluster Initiative (support of a grant from the John Templeton Foundation, grant #15571 (Analytic Theology))